FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 5, 2015

Contact: Jen Little, The Little Marketing Department
(804) 725-8259 / jen@jenlittle.com

Peninsula Women's Network Community Outreach Mixer "Be Heard"

Gloucester, VA – The Peninsula Women's Network is bringing 10 local nonprofits together for an evening of education and exploration on November 18, from 5:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. Be Heard will be held at Morningside Assisted Living, 655 Denbigh Boulevard, Newport News, VA, 23608.

Select non-profits have been invited share their message with our organization and the community. Featured Non-profits and guests will also have access to information, ideas and feedback from marketing and business development experts, Courtney Buzzell and Shelley Smith.
Featured Non-profits include:
Communities in Schools of Hampton Roads
Becoming Families
Compassion Advocacy Network
Heritage Christian Academy
Dream Design Dresses
American Heart Association
Parents Against Bullying
Transitions Family Violence Services
Tidewater Arts Outreach
Housing Development Corporation of Hampton Roads

Courtney Buzzell, President-Elect and Programs Chair for the Peninsula Women's Network said, "The statistics are real, and they are scary, but these non-profit rockstars are changing Hampton Roads, one day at a time. This is our chance to step up and hear from these game changers; to show them that we see them, and we are listening."

The cost is $10 Members & $15 Non-Members/Guests. Registration is available on the home page of the Peninsula Women's Network : www.peninsulawomensnetwork.org. This is the perfect event for Individuals and Organizations who or looking to become involved with a local charitable organization.

The Peninsula Women's Network's mission is to connect women and to empower to achieve success